LeAnn Stutler

Acoustic Solo Musician

BIOGRAPHY

LeAnn Stutler is a singer-songwriter originally from Crown Point, Indiana. Emerging as a solo act on the acoustic circuit out of the Region, LeAnn has traveled around the Midwest for last three years, bringing her guitars and songs with her. She plays primarily country music, but often includes classic rock, alternative, and pop songs into her sets. In May 2019, LeAnn Stutler graduated from Columbia College Chicago with her Bachelor of Music Degree, concentrating in Contemporary, Urban, and Popular Music. LeAnn released her first full-length album in November 2019, titled Keeps Getting Better. She released her latest EP, Welcome to the Circle, in January 2022. She was a finalist for the 2020 Hoosier STAR competition (with the La Porte County Symphony Orchestra). LeAnn has had the privilege of opening for national and international acts like LANCO, Granger Smith, Jo Dee Messina, and Rodney Atkins.
